Numb. 7707.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 3. to Tuesday June 6. 1738.

Petersbourg, May 13.

A Courier arrived here laſt Tueſday from Felt Marſhal Munich, with Letters dated the 27th paſt, by which this Court is informed, that he is yet near Perevolotzna, and has divided his Army into three Bodies; the firſt is to be commanded by General Romanſoff, the ſecond by General Sagraskoy, and the third by Lieutenant General Biron the Duke of Courland's eldeſt Brother, in caſe General Keith, who lies ill at Pultawa, is not in a Condition to take the Command; and Lieutenant General Lewendahl is to have the Command of the Artillery. Though the Nights are yet cold, as there is already a great deal of Graſs in the Deſert, Felt Marſhal Munich is reſolved to begin his March towards Oczakow, as ſoon as the Battallion of the Guards, and ſome heavy Cannon which he daily expects, have joined his Army. Two Days ago another Courier brought Letters from Felt Marſhal Lacy, dated at Bachmut the 30th paſt, at which Time he was juſt going to begin his March towards the Crimea. It is ſaid, that a very conſiderable Body of regular Troops, beſides a great Number of Don Coſſacks, Calmucks, and Tartars, are already gone from Aſoph in order to join his Excellency on the Road; and as it is hardly poſſible that the Cham of Crimea can get together a ſufficient Force to oppoſe the Ruſſian Army, we expect to hear that our Troops, after they have deſtroyed all the open Country, will attack the Towns of Jenikala and Kertz, and demoliſh entirely the Perecop.

Vienna, May 31, N. S. On the 28th at Night young Count Starenberg arrived here from Count Neuperg, with Advice that a conſiderable Body of Turks was ſtill in and about Old Orſova, where they had laid a Barricade of Boats over the Danube; and that at another Place called Meadia, a few Leagues Northward of Orſova, the Turks with a Body of 5 or 6000 Men, had attacked Count Picolomini, who was there with a ſingle Battalion, and that they had been repulſed twice, or, as ſome ſay, thrice, with great Loſs. That Place is of no other Conſequence in itſelf, but as it opens a Paſſage to Temeſwar; to cover which Place and the whole Bannat, Count Neuperg had, he hoped, made the proper Diſpoſitions. Count Picolomini is Colonel Commandant of the Regiment of Grune, and has gained ſome Reputation by his late Behaviour. The Grand Duke's Journey to the Army is ſtill ſuſpended.

Copenhagen, June 7, N. S. Count Rantzau, the Vice-roy of Norway, has Leave to return hither upon his private Affairs; and the ſame Permiſſion is ſaid to be granted, for the like Reaſon, to Mr. Berkentin at Vienna. M. Beylewitz, a Privy Counſellor of the late Duke of Wirtemberg Stutgard, was preſented Yeſterday in the Circle to his Daniſh Majeſty. It has been ſaid a good while, that this Gentleman was ſent for hither to be Governour to the Prince Royal, in the Room of M. Sohlenthal deſigned for ſome other Poſt. The White Ribbon was ſent to him upon the Road, that his firſt Appearance here might be made in it; and the Courtiers ſeem to have a particular Regard for him.

Whitehall, May 20, 1738.

It having been repreſented to His Majeſty, That a moſt notorious and wicked Practice has of late Years prevailed, and does now particularly prevail, to a very high Degree, in His Majeſty's Foreſt, called New Foreſt, in the County of Southampton, for Perſons unknown, not only to cut down Trees, and Part of Trees, fit for the Service of His Majeſty's Navy, but likewiſe to ſteal and take away from the ſaid Foreſt, Timber, after it has been ſquared into proper Lengths for that Service; and it being apprehended, that the Perſons guilty of the ſaid Theft are chiefly encouraged thereto by Perſons in the Neighbourhood, who receive the ſame from them: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the ſaid Offenders, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement thereto, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover any Perſon or Perſons, that have ſtolen, or may hereafter ſteal, any Timber from the ſaid Foreſt, as aforeſaid, or that have received, or may hereafter receive, any ſuch Timber, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, ſo that the ſaid Offender or Offenders may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the ſaid Reward to be paid by the Surveyor General of his Majeſty's Woods for the Time being, on the Conviction of any of the ſaid Offenders. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

General Poſt Office, Feb. 22, 1737.

Whereas the Poſt Boy, bringing the Briſtol Mail to London, was ſet upon and robbed by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, Yeſterday about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, at the End of Sunning Lane, two Miles on this Side of Reading. The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever ſhall apprehend the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery ſhall make a Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the Fact, ſuch Accomplice will be entitled to the ſaid Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon. The Perſon who committed this Robbery, is deſcribed to be a middle-ſiz'd Man, had on a great Riding Coat, with a whitiſh Velvet or Plush Cape; he carried off the Horſe

Philip Lord Hardwicke, Baron of Hardwicke, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that the ſaid William Herne hath in all Things conformed himſelf according to the Directions of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts: This is to give Notice, that by Virtue of an Act paſſed in the Fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, his ſaid Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the ſaid Act directs, unleſs Cauſe be ſhewn to the contrary on or before the 26th of this Inſtant June.

THE under-mentioned Perſons claiming the Benefit of the Act lately paſſed for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, the following Notices have been brought to the Printer of the London Gazette, to be inſerted in this Paper, and are herein inſerted in Obedience to the ſaid Act.

Whereas Joſeph Winder, late of Kingſide in the County of Cumberland, Yeoman, was on the firſt day of January 1736, and now is a Priſoner in Cuſtody of the Goaler or Keeper of his Majeſty's Priſon at the City of Carliſle in and for the County of Cumberland, at the Suit of me William Tordiffe, late of Aldeth in the ſaid County, Yeoman, who has given Notice in Writing to the ſaid Joſeph Winder, and alſo to the Goaler of the ſaid Priſon, that I require him the ſaid Joſeph Winder to appear before his Majeſty's Juſtices, at the next General Quarter Seſſions or the Adjournment thereof, to be held for the County of Cumberland, next after thirty days from the date hereof, in order to diſcover and deliver in upon Oath and ſubſcribe a Schedule of his Eſtate and Effects. This is therefore to give Notice to the other Creditors of the ſaid Joſeph Winder, that they may be apprized thereof, and come in for their diſtributive Shares of the ſaid Joſeph Winder's Eſtate and Effects, purſuant to the Tenor of an Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, entitled, An Act for Relief of Inſolvent Debtors.

Whereas Jenkin Thomas, late of the Pariſh of Saint Mary Church in the County of Glamorgan, Yeoman, now a Priſoner in his Majeſty's Goal at Cardiffe in the County of Glamorgan aforeſaid, at the Suit of Margaret Lewis, Spinſter, (which ſaid Margaret is ſince married with John Bowen, Taylor) who has on the third day of June Inſtant given Notice in Writing to the ſaid Jenkin Thomas, requiring him to be and appear before his Majeſty's Juſtices, at the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held at Neath in and for the ſaid County of Glamorgan, next after thirty days from the the date hereof, in order to discover and deliver up upon Oath a true Schedule subscribed under his Hand of his Estate and Effects. This is therefore to give Notice to the other Creditors of the said Jenkin Thomas, that they may be apprized thereof, and come in for their distributive Share of the said Jenkin Thomas's Estate and Effects, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

Whereas in pursuance of an Act passed in the 11th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Relief of such Prisoners for Debt as have by unavoidable Accidents lost the Benefit of an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and for the Indemnity of such Sheriffs and Goalers as have incurred any Penalties on account of such Prisoners not being discharged; and for extending the Benefit of the said Act to Creditors, whose Debtors were committed to Prison since the first day of January 1730, and were detained there upon the first day of January 1736, and have chose to continue there. I John May, have by Notice in Writing dated the 27th day of May now last past, required the Marshal of the King's Bench Prison to bring Christopher Widmore, Gentleman, who was a Prisoner in his Custody on the first day of January 1736, and hath continued so, and since been charged in Custody at my Suit, before the Justices, at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County of Surry, which shall first happen thirty days next after the date of the said Notice, with a true Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of his Detainer, that he may be obliged to deliver in upon Oath and subscribe a full and true Schedule of all his Estate and Effects whatsoever. This is to give Notice to the other Creditors of the said Christopher Widmore, that they may come in for their distributive Share of his Estate and Effects, according to the Tenor and Direction of the said Act.

John May.

Whereas John Arnsby, late of Little Weldon in the County of Northampton, Yeoman, a Debtor, was committed to the Prison of the Sheriff of Northamptonshire for Debt, since the first day of January in the Year of our Lord 1730, and was detained in the said Prison upon the first day of January, in the Year of our Lord 1736, and hath continued so detained, and now doth continue so detained. I therefore John Woodcock of Little Weldon aforesaid, Labourer, being a Creditor of the said John Arnsby, and at whose Suit the said John Arnsby hath been charged in Custody, do hereby give Notice to all Persons whom it may concern, that I the said John Woodcock, according to the Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of the Lord the now King, intitled, An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and according to the Act of Parliament made in the Eleventh Year of the Lord the now King, intitled, An Act for the Relief of such Prisoners for Debt as have by unavoidable Accidents lost the Benefit of an Act passed in the last Sessions of Parliament, intitled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and for the Indemnity of such Sheriffs and Goalers as have incurred any Penalties on account of such Prisoners not being discharged; and for extending the Benefit of the said Act to Creditors whose Debtors were committed to Prison since the first day of January 1730, and were detained there upon the first day of January 1736, and have chose to continue there, have given Notice in Writing to the said John Arnsby, and to Michael Warwick, the Keeper of the said Prison, in whose Custody he is, requiring the said Keeper of the said Prison wherein he the said John Arnsby is detained, to bring the said John Arnsby before his Majesty's Justices, at their next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said County of Northampton, together with the Copy and Copies of the Cause and Causes of the said John Arnsby's Detainer, so that the said John Arnsby coming before such Justices at the said Quarter Sessions, may at the Desire of any one or more of his Creditors at whose Suit he appears to be detained, be obliged to deliver in upon Oath and subscribe a Schedule of his Estate and Effects, both Real and Personal, Freehold and Copyhold, as well in Reversion, Remainder, or Expectancy, as in present Possession, to be vested, assigned, and equally divided for the Benefit of his Creditors, according to the Tenor, Effect, true Intent and Meaning of the said several recited Acts. In Witness whereof, I the said John Woodcock have hereunto set my Hand the 3d day of June, in the Year of our Lord, 1738.

The (f) Mark of John Woodcock,

Witnesses hereunto,
Tho. Massey.
John Morton.
